Frequently Asked Questions

Who are these discounts available to?

These discounts are available for businesses.

If there is a specific product or brand that I'm looking for, but it is not on the core list of discounted items, can I get that item discounted?

Una can work with your Office Depot account manager to get the item or items discounted.

Can these discounts be used in stores and online?

Once members are connected to the discounts, they are set up with a login where they can purchase online. Members can also request a discount card from their account manager so purchases can be made in store as well.

Can I get a cost analysis prior to switching to the Una/Office Depot program?

Una can work to get you a cost comparison if you are spending $50,000 or more on office supplies.
